

Arbor Day Celebration

Saturday, February 27th, 10am-1pm

Willie McTell Trail (beginning in front of French Quarter Café)

Trees! Trees! Trees!

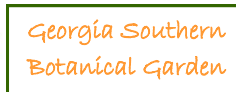

Bring your family and friends to attend the Arbor Day Celebration being held in downtown Statesboro along the Willie McTell Trail. There will be something for everyone!

- Children's activities and crafts including flowerpot painting, pinecone birdfeeders, making your own recycled watering can and more!
- Tree planting demonstrations
- Smokey the Bear
- Rain barrels
- FREE seedling give-a-ways! Be sure to get one to plant in your yard in honor of Arbor Day!
- Shop for plants, trees, shrubbery, gardening supplies and more at the "Green Market" and see what local nurseries, garden centers, and landscaping companies have to offer this season!
- FREE food supplied by First Southern National Bank
- Live music
- Landscaping and proper tree care advice!

Saturday, February 27th 10am-1pm

All Arbor Day activities will take place on the Willie McTell Trail beginning in front of French Quarter and Sugar Magnolia Bakery.
